Words from the Alsherjargothi

We have had a great start to 2020! Among other things, I am very proud of the success of our AFA Youth Program. Apprentice Folkbuilders, Brandy Callahan and Jessica Lambert have exceeded all expectations to give us and our children a fantastic start to an ever evolving youth program. If you have children that you would like to enroll in the program, please contact these ladies at youth@runestone.org

About a week ago. Bodi and I loaded up in mv. new to me. Prius (I know. I know. but the gas

...mileage...)) and started the 16.5 hour drive out to AFA Thorfest II in Colorado. We had a fun drive across beautiful country and we decided to stop for the night at a cheap motel in Wyoming. We started of the first day of the event in grand style with our complementary continental breakfast of champions.

Not joking, I am a huge fan of the motel waffles. We made our way to the camp site and were impressed by the massive lodge building where we were to have our meals and talks. It was great to meet the new members and guests that showed up, as well as to see old friends.

This is the second annual Thorfest and I have been lucky enough to have attended both. Folkbuilder, Jason Plourde does an amazing job putting these on and making them have a real family feel to them. Both years, I have been so impressed with the closeness achieved with the folk who attend, it is really conducive to getting to know each other and building lasting bonds.

This event was filled with fun and frith. We had powerful Blots to Thor and Odin. We had video conference talks with Gythia Anna Funk and Gothi Bryan Wilton, as well as Philip from Mimir's Brunnr. During the afternoon we threw 2.5 lb hammers for distance (I got second place with 124 feet). We finished the evening with a very powerful sumble.

second place with 134 votes. We finished the evening with a very powerful sunrise.

As Bodi and I made the 16.5 hour trek home, we were thoroughly impressed with the event itself and the outstanding folk we got to spend the weekend with. It was worth every mile we drove to be there and I am looking forward to next year.

AFA events are where the magic happens. If you can make it out to one, you will not regret it! If you are at all able, please join me for Ostara in the South in March.

Hail the Gods!
Hail the Folk!
Hail the AFA!

Folkbuilder Coordinator Report

I'd like to introduce our newest Apprentice Folkbuilder. Brandy Callahan has stepped up to help organize in the Northern Plains region and specifically North Dakota. Brandy has already been active as a volunteer and has had a major hand in our newly formed Youth Program.

Brandy's energy is contagious and I'm looking forward to seeing more from her in our future. Thanks for stepping up, Brandy. Our success depends on people like you stepping up and making things happen.

Ostara In the South

Ostara in the South is quickly approaching! Join us March 13-15. for the first national event of the 25th anniversary year of the Asatru Folk Assembly.

Ostara in the South has grown into a premier event, one of the best events the Asatru Folk Assembly hosts. This year we will have a new event site with members and leadership from across the country in attendance.

The entire Witan and our Alsherjargothi, Matt Flavel, will be there, along with Steve and Sheila McNallen, and Gothar from across the nation. This year's celebration will feature many speakers, a mead competition, and much more.

Truly this looks to be an amazing event and one you will not want to miss. Bedding is limited so make sure to get your tickets soon! Visit our EventBrite listing today.

Thorrablót at Odinshof: An Antidote for the Winter-Blues

January, especially after our high-energy Yule celebration, was destined for “the blues,” but we imbued our day with Thor's energy and his color “red.” Everything about the day was hearty, strong, and folk-oriented. Tables were sprinkled with red confetti, rose petals, candles, and bright red Mjollnirs.

Our lunch featured a family recipe from Katie Thompson (Marge's Midgard Chili) and afterwards, Steven Ingle gave another great talk on genealogy. Topics included privacy, changes to both Ancestry and 23andme, and our own cousin-matches in the AFA. Everyone who has taken a DNA test should get a Gedmatch kit number and send that to Steve for his next round of analytics.

Steve McNallen then shared the wisdom of his personal system, called the Three Cauldrons, which became his Master Work for the Rune Gild. Working with three energy centers in the body, along with galdering specific runes associated with them, are part of this intensive program.

Will Migala organized Viking Games which included many feats of strength. You can almost hear Thor's booming laughter at these events, ending with a well-matched Tug-of-War!

In preparation for the Thor/Sif Blot, Sheila explained that Sif is an Earth goddess who is worthy of honoring throughout the growing season. Add to that the concept of balance with Thor–Sky and Sif–Earth, setting up a powerful blending of god and goddess energy and we had the perfect set-up for a blot officiated by a gothi and a gythia.. The elements of the blot itself were shared by Thorgrun Odden and Sheila McNallen. The runes Wunjo and Thurisaz were sung as Thorgrun carried the horn from “heart-to-hand-to horn.” At the conclusion, a poem from the annals of the AFA had our voices rise in unison — “The Folk Doth Abide!”

Feasting followed, with great enjoyment by all who were there. The weather, which had been so threatening all week, held off until nighttime, giving us a day of bliss. We thank you, Thor and Sif!

It is because of true, dedicated people — like Krystal Bailey who helped with the planning weeks ahead — that these events function so well. Volunteers are needed and duties must be shared, so all can experience the magic of the folk coming together.

Our next gathering is February 29th, for Charming of the Plow.
Our next monthly Yuba-Sutter/USDA food distribution will take place February 8th.

Kindred Spotlight

In this month's Kindred Spotlight, the AFA would like to recognize and honor the Cascadia Althing Kindred of Idaho.

These folks are a pretty active group! They love the outdoors and being active, often hosting hiking and outdoor fitness events as well as getting together for the Holy days. We are proud to have such Noble families like yourself!

AFA Kindreds are the local congregations and representatives of our church. Cascadia Althing, you are a shining example and noble representatives of our church. Thank you for everything you do!

Day of Remembrance for Eyvind Kinrifi

Day of Remembrance For Eyvind Kinrifi
February 9th, 2020

Near to what could be considered the beginning on the Christian conversion of Norway, under the King, Olaf Tryggvason, there was a farmer of Noble stock who stood against the king and his attempts at conversion.

Eyvind (Pronounced Ivin) Kinrifi was called to make plans against the upcoming invasion by his friend Harek of Thjotta, who had very recently returned home after himself refusing conversion to Christianity. Eyvind answered the call, and for the sake of haste he traveled with only a small retinue of men. He was well welcomed by Harek, but shortly his arrival Eyvind was ambushed.

Unbeknownst to Harek, he had been followed by some of Olaf Tryggvason's men. They forced Eyvind to Thronhjelm, where Olaf attempted to convert Eyvind, first with offers of land and gold, and then with threats of torture and death. Unwilling to turn his back on his faith, Eyvind was eventually killed.

On the 9th of February, as we stop to remember Eyvind Kinrifi and his unwavering faith despite the consequences, take a moment to consider what in your own life is important to you. Have there ever been times in which you had to choose between keeping your faith and losing something else? A friend? Family?

In these times, when we are allowed the choice, it is sometimes harder to stand strong in the face of opposition. It is sometimes easier to hide behind the idea of a pseudonym, or to keep your faith hidden from those in your life that should matter. Remember, when you think of Eyvind, what truly matters. Stand strong with and take pride in your Folk.

Hail, Eyvind Kinrifi!

And Hail the Asatru Folk Assembly!

Alaska and Far North

January kicked off strong for the Alaska Folk.

We had a meetup at member Lori Littrell's house, and everyone had a great time. The following Sunday, everyone made a trip to the pass between Anchorage and Seward for our annual Thorrablot celebration. Although it was -15 out, the children and adults all had a great time sledding and enjoying winter activities. Steve held a powerful Thor Blot, and it echoed throughout the mountains.

Deep South

We had perfect weather for our Thorrablót in Florida. We galdred the rune Thorisaz using our new kindred drum. During the blót we could hear a hawk calling out over the trees and afterwards it could be seen flying above us. It was fitting that we should be blessed by the presence of such a hunter, like Thor's stepson Ullr, while we honored Sif's beloved.

Keith won the 25th Anniversary AFA Calendar and after lunch we enjoyed the afternoon discussing the coming year and plans to bring more of our Folk home. It was a fine start to this historic year for the AFA and we're looking forward to many more celebrations with our families under the tri-horn.

Georgia and Alabama,

Greetings, my Folk! 2020 is going to be very big for the AFA, as well as for our region specifically! We already have planned events for the first quarter of the year, and more will come along as we progress through 2020. The most notable of these events, however, is the AFA's Ostara in the South! Registration is open and tickets are on sale! The link can be found on all of the Facebook AFA group pages, or you can send any Folkbuilder a message.

Our first event, Alabama Thorrablöt, takes place on February 1st! We then have our Charming of the Plow on February 29th! For more details, you can check the Deep South Facebook page, or get in touch with yours truly!

I hope everyone has had a happy and productive start to their new year, and I hope to see you at Ostara!

Hail the Gods, the Folk, and the AFA!

Midwest

Greetings from the Midwest,

The Midwest has been very productive this month. We have contacted all of our state representatives and got meetings established in every state. We have begun planning for our next regional event which will be Ostara the second weekend of April. Those of you in the Midwest or beyond that wish to know more about our 2nd Annual Ostara in the Midwest please feel free to reach out to me or Jessica Lambert. We also encourage as many members as possible to be at the AFA National Ostara in the South. This being the 25th Anniversary of the AFA makes it all the more important to attend.

Heimdalls Midgard Kindred has been active every week. After getting through Yule we've taken somewhat of a rest but things are beginning to pick back up. HMK celebrated a Day of Remembrance for Raud the Strong and had a Thorrablot. We had a new member and his family join us for this. We had a good impression of them and they had a good impression of us. New bonds are forging! At the dinner that we had we covered all of the work we had done as a kindred and as a region over the last year and what we want to cover this year. It was awesome to see there was hardly a week that went by last year that we hadn't accomplished something.

All of the other states have things brewing as well. Below you will see dates for these events. To find out more reach out to me and I will fill you in on the details and help you get in touch with the representative in your state.

Meet-up dates for each state:

Illinois—Feb 8th

Michigan—Feb 28th-Mar 1 @ Michigan Nordic Fire Festival check it out at michigannordicfirefestival.com

Ohio—Feb ? (pending)

Indiana—Feb 23rd

Wisconsin—Feb 29th

It is our plan as a region to have gatherings in each state once a month. This starts now in February! The more people that participate the better these will be. A lot of people come into the AFA looking for action and when we do have something they don't show up. This needs to change. We have people in the Midwest that are more than close enough to have regular get togethers. Let's get out of our houses more and meet our regional folk. Until next time...

Hail the Asatru Folk Assembly!

Upper South

Greetings,

The upper south continues to grow and be a powerhouse within the AFA! I want to encourage everyone to get out and attend local meetups and interact with our regional members. Watch the Upper South Facebook group, this is usually where events and meetups are advertised. If you discontinue Facebook, I encourage you to join our Telegram group or email me to get added to my email list.

Remember, we have our big national event Ostara in the South, coming up in March. This is a major event and is a life changing experience. Not to mention, our very own founder Steve McNallen will be there, amongst national leadership from all over the country!

Don't miss this incredible opportunity to commune with the gods and our folk. Big things are in the works; it has never been a better time to belong to the AFA and be in the Upper South region!

Raud the Strong Meet & Greet Sacramento – January 5th

Sam's Hof Brau, a historic location in Sacramento, was a favorite meeting place before we had Odinshof. To expand our reach and add another layer of involvement, the McNallens decided to try this venue again. The turn-out was exceptional!

We had long-time members, but also new contacts from “down the Valley.” The food was hearty, as in the past. The ambience of the banquet room is soft and elegant with rose-colored wallpaper and chandeliers instead of glaring fluorescent lights. The McNallens spoke on the evolution of the AFA, and the founding principles which still evoke that sense of duty and legacy we all carry with us — especially in these days.

At the end, we gave a toast to Raud the Strong, Norwegian hero who refused to submit to the dominant king. All present had a chance to share their thoughts.

This was such an outstanding success that it will continue as one more option for our our members and prospects. Our next meetup at Sam's Hof Brau will be February 16th, from 3-6 pm. Please notify Sheila at sheila@runestone.org if you plan to come, so you can get all the updates.

AFA Military Program

ASATRU FOLK ASSEMBLY
MILITARY OUTREACH PROGRAM

Our military program is looking for volunteers, those who wish to help out whether it be for online posts of content, helping your Folkbuilders in your local area better reach out to our military members on base, help out with fundraising, etc.

Before next Yule, we would like to have holiday care packages for our currently deployed members. If this interests you, please send us an email.

Also, I have a few books/pamphlets left from our successful book drive, if you know anyone in your area needing any material; Soldiers Edda and/or the Pocket Voluspa, send me an email as well!

If you are a current business owner and/or in a position of hiring folks and are looking for any transitioning AFA Military members from service to civilian, also send us an email. I am hoping to build a good network for our military members to ensure they are successful and get whatever help needed after their service to their folk and nation.

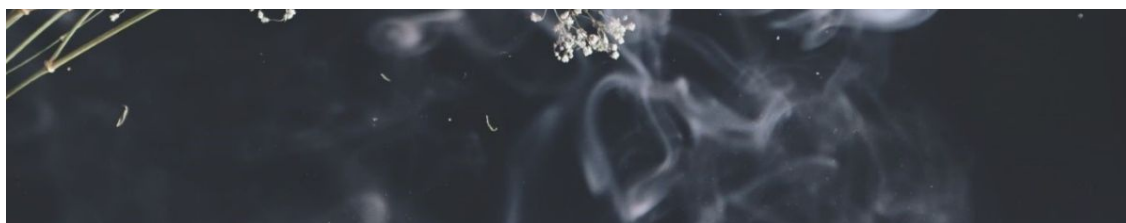

Thank you all!

Eir's Blessings

Eir's Blessings!

Everybody needs a little extra help sometimes. Every body does, too.

Women, being the frith-y creatures that we are, are uniquely suited to the task of manipulating energy for the purpose of healing. Magic, you could say.

Do you have a health concern and need a little extra energy? Are you battling with a mental illness like depression or PTSD? Is your baby having a hard time with teething?

If you've answered yes at all, reach out to us!

Once a month women of the AFA will get together to preform healing rituals all across the globe. If you would like to be included, please send a message to let us know!

At the same time, Women of the AFA! If you are interested helping to create a frithful, healing magic, let us know! It's easy, but it makes a huge difference to those of our community that need our help!

You can reach us at EirsBlessings@runestone.org

Our next healing ritual will be on Thursday, February 20th 2020.

AFA Genealogy Group

AFA Genealogy Group

I created the AFA Genealogy Group on Facebook to help our Folk with genealogy and family history research. This is a good place to learn, share tips, and information on genealogy.

Discover if you are related to other AFA members! We use GEDmatch kit numbers to batch process each person to every other person in the database and then post a chart in the group so that you can see if you are connected to other members. Many of us have discovered that other AFA members are also blood family.

Come and join us!

Contact Steve Ingle, Sheila McNallen, or Terry Rumph for an invitation to the group. As a side note, this group is for AFA members only.

Call for Photo Donations

Call for Photo Donations

We have a real need for hi-res photographs of our members gathering, being active in their kindreds, and showing what it means to live Asatru. If you are willing to donate some hi-res photos for use in promotions such as the AFA Calendar, the AFA website, our publications, and so on, please email them to photos@runestone.org. The larger the resolution the better, so please email them from the device where the photo was taken.

Folk Services

For some it may be a natural disaster. For others an unexpected change in health, and for some just an unforeseen chain of events. Whatever the case may be sometimes we find ourselves in a sticky situation, and although we try and to work and do our best to pull ourselves out, sometimes we may need the help of our Folk community to give us a hand up...

That's when our folks Services Program comes in. We give one-time monetary grants to those members in need. These folks are so grateful and we know that once they get back on track they will contribute to this fund. For those that are able, we are in need of funds so we can be prepared for when these situations arise in our community. If you're able please place a donation today. Even a small donation adds up in the grand scheme of things and even $5 or $10 can help if enough people pitch in. If even a fraction of the folks who like the page did that each month, imagine the possibilities!

AFA Folk Services is intended to provide modest, one-time monetary grants to AFA members in dire need of basic services. It is also to be a source for referrals and information to help members get help beyond what the AFA can directly provide. For more information, send a private message to the Folk Services page on Facebook.

Your contributions are earnestly solicited and of course are tax-deductible! Please donate to Folk Services or one of our other AFA Fundraisers at <http://www.runestone.org/donate/>.

Thanks in advance!

Baby Blanket Project

The Women of the AFA are proud to be continuing this fine and noble work we call the Baby Blanket Project! We're committed to ensuring all new babies born within the AFA are gifted a hand made — knit, crocheted, or woven — baby blanket! It's just our little way of celebrating each new addition to our folk!

This project has been going strong for nearly a year now, and has been a rousing success! The Ladies of the AFA have knitted, crocheted, and sewn beautiful baby blankets for over 20 of our littlest folk, with more on the way. They've been delivered everywhere from Alaska to Florida, California to Sweden!

If you are a member of the AFA who is expecting a baby, please let your Folkbuilder know so we can get a blanket to you. If you would like to contribute, either financially or by volunteering as a baby blanket crafter, let your Folkbuilder know about that as well, so he can get you in touch with the right people. It's so rewarding to see your handicraft being loved by our little heathens!

Would you like a blanket for your newborn, or to donate and help with yarn costs (yarn is expensive!)? Please notify Mandy (mandy@runestone.org) with the subject line: BABY BLANKET.
