Words from the Alsherjargothi

Congratulations to Þórshof! Ostara 2024 was the largest event Þórshof has had yet. Not only did a record number of our Folk attend, it was a powerful event for all involved.

For myself, I was very energized by the event and by the company. More than that, I was extremely proud of my AFA family and especially our amazing Folkbuilders.

Saturday night's High Sumbel may have been my favorite Sumbel I have ever been a part of. It was truly inspiring to hear how people were there for each other in times of need and the positive way our AFA has enhanced people's lives.

We are all part of something amazing. There is no better time than now to go out there and make things happen. There is so much to do, so many dreams to make reality, so many ways all of us can help work together to achieve greatness. If you would like to help the AFA build, grow, and achieve, reach out to your nearest Folkbuilder because there is ALWAYS more to do then there are hands to do it. Let's build our Golden Age today!

Words from our Gothar

Altars & Asatru At Home

If you've ever been to one of our Hofs or national events, you're aware that there's nothing like standing in a ritual with the Alsherjargothi or his Witan, alongside other Folk devoted to our Gods. Those moments live with you forever, and can be life-affirming.

However, what do we do in between those events? How do we set ourselves up to experience as much Asatru as possible?

The first step I recommend to the many people who ask this question: set up an altar at home! You can get as esoteric with this as you prefer, but at minimum, an altar is simply a sacred space within your home where you keep ritual items and speak to your Gods and Ancestors. I share here two pictures of my altar so that you can get an idea of what should be present on an altar.

As you can see, my altar includes not only ritual items (horn, bowl, Runes), but also personal items that are special to me (axe from my father, seax knife, ordination certificate). I approach my altar every day for one reason or another, typically just to sort of take stock of the weight of sharing Troth with the Æsir. I do a Three-Rune pull once a year to give me a general outline of what I can expect for that year, and occasionally a Single-Rune pull to answer a question I may have for the Norns. Some people pull a single Rune every single day and meditate on that Rune's concepts throughout their workday. Some approach their altar and say the prayer to the Day from the Sigrdrifumál every morning (you can read even more about that prayer in Gythia McNallen's article just below).

Besides altar work, you can always officiate Blöt or Sumbel at home! For Blöt, all you need is an offering or gift, and a receptacle such as a bowl to leave the offering in if it is something like mead. Simply invoke the God or Goddess, say a prayer, and leave the offering. For Sumbel, you can have your family and/or kindred gather outside or in a dining room, then pass the horn around hailing Gods, ancestors, and heroes. For more detail on these rites, feel free to send me an email at teast@runestone.org.

I hope this short article proves helpful to our Folk who crave more Asatru in their daily lives! Please don't hesitate to contact myself or any of the Gothar with questions!

Hail to the Day!

One of the most common questions by someone new to Asatru, is, “How do I develop a spiritual practice?” The answer is simple. Start with The Dawn and get ready to create your day.

Go outdoors if you can or stand by a window. Sense the change as the sky begins to lighten – the transition between night and day. This is the time of liminality. It’s fleeting, but this interval provides moments of grandeur and power. This is when sky-colors change and clouds may dance before you. Sunna's rays may shoot up over the horizon.

Think of your intentions; collect yourself into the moment if you're outdoors. Feel the air, hear the sounds. Start your day with purpose. This is a time of profound expression. In the image of Ostara, the Goddess of the Saxons, she throws open the window to allow the light and warmth to enter our lives. Stand with arms outstretched, inhale deeply, and sense the energy flowing to your hands.

Embrace the majesty of our divine fertility-spirits: Ostara, Nerthus, Sunna, Frigg, and Freya in their guardianship of our blessed Midgard. In our home, this daily practice includes reciting a passage from the Sigrdrífumál:

Hail to the Day: Hail to the Sons of Day.
Hail to Night and its Daughter.

Gaze upon us gently standing here.
Give your blessings on our battles.

Hail to the Gods! Hail to the Goddesses!
Hail to the all-giving Earth!
Wisdom and lore, as long as we live, grant us
And healing hands.

Give thanks for this new day. Speak to those beyond the Veil. Send a morning thought to loved ones who live far away. Thank the Aesir and your Ancestors for another day to create anew and count the blessings in your life, and to offer blessings to others.

Healing hands and healing words are magical acts. Good intentions should guide each day's journey. Don't let your Victories hide in the shadows. Celebrate them with a full heart.

The Quest for Freyshof

“Njördr in Nóatún begot afterward two children: the son was called Freyr, and the daughter Freyja; they were fair of face and mighty. Freyr is the most renowned of the Æsir; he rules over the rain and the shining of the sun, and therewithal the fruit of the earth; and it is good to call on him for fruitful seasons and peace. He governs also the prosperity of men.”

– Gylfaginning

Freyshof Fund – Asatru Folk Assembly \(runestone.org\)

This sacred quest has had a great start so far! The generosity has been amazing, as always!

This is the list of things that need to happen before we can make Freyshof a reality:

1. We need to pay off Njörðshof.
 - The first of 2 loans have been paid off!
 - We now owe $92,068.20 on our remaining loan.
2. We need to raise our monthly donation average by 17%.
 - This is membership dues/Hoftollar plus other donations.
3. We need to locate a suitable property.
4. We need to find lenders and build a war chest.

This is not a "quick" process so stay patient and resolute. As we progress, I will keep you all updated on our progress!

Hail Freyr!

Sigrheim: Home of Victory

Ostara's Blessings

March and the welcoming of Springtime are a bit behind us now, but the blessings of Ostara's dawn are still bright in my mind. The Folk at Sigheim had a good month, full of solid work and a truly wonderful Blot to the Mother of Dawn. If you haven't made it out yet, please come. There's always work to be done, always friendships to strengthen, always smiles to be had. We'd love to see you!

Spring has Sprung at the Academy

Greetings parents and students! Spring is in full swing and we hope you all had an amazing Ostara! We loved seeing all of your Ostara projects! Some of those projects we are showing off here in the runestone this month.

I'd like to remind parents that the academy enrolls all year round and that as a homeschool program, we don't have traditional school years, per se, however we do run until midsummer for administrative purposes, but you have all summer to complete your work and be ready for the next school year.

This fall we will be enrolling K-6 grades, once again we are well ahead of the promised schedule and are very proud to welcome new students all the way up to and including 6th grade! We can't wait to see you!

Asatru Holidays - April 2024 - Jarl Haakon | Stubba | Hexennacht

Day of Remembrance

Jarl Haakon | April 9th

Jarl Haakon, or Haakon Sigurdsson, son of the Norwegian earl of Lade, was exiled to Denmark after the murder of his father by Harald II Graycloak. He soon allied with Harald Bluetooth, and they overthrew his father's murderer. While Haakon became the sovereign in the west, Harald Bluetooth annexed southeastern Norway. The two would again join forces when Bluetooth needed aid in fighting against the Holy Roman Emperor Otto II in 974.

Though forced into baptism, Haakon's faith in his Gods was so strong that he was not only able to revolt against Bluetooth's efforts to Christianize Norway for a time, but also to spread and expand his faith in his lands. In the end, powers that he could not control began to sway the attitudes of his men and he was killed by one of his own retainers.

Jarl Haakon was the last Asatru Ruler of Norway—his death in 995 CE leading directly to the takeover by Olaf Tryggvason.

So what can we learn from this story?

There will always be people in our lives who do not understand our faith or our dedication to our faith. Even our friends might choose to try and change our minds. When the people we have trusted do this, we can sometimes find ourselves doubting our choices, even if for just a moment. ‘What if?’ Take that breath and reaffirm your faith. It isn’t always going to be easy, but nothing that is worth anything ever is.

With dedication can come reward. We might not be able to make everyone understand our values and our beliefs, but for every person who turns away, there is a person somewhere whose mind can be opened by our words. There is that person whose soul longs to ‘come home’. They just don’t know it yet. Perhaps your words, your dedication, your belief will be the thing that helps someone else find their way, and what better reward could there be for standing strong?

We must also take a moment to remember to curb our arrogance. When we become too sure of ourselves and our ability to stand tall against everything that would fight us, we can become blinded by the reality of the situation around us. Always remember to take time to take the measure of the situation. Take the time to know if it is a good time to talk or to hold your tongue.

*Wise in measure let each man be, but let him not wax too wise;
for never the happiest of men is he who knows much of many things
— Hávamál 54*

Hail Jarl Haakon!

Day of Remembrance

John Yeowell “Stubba” | April 10th

On April 10, 2023, the AFA marked the first official celebration of a Day of Remembrance for John Yeowell, known as “Stubba.”

Yeowell enjoyed a long life and did many great works in spreading our faith in the Aesir. He led a full life, starting out by serving in an Irish division of the military, and later the French Foreign Legion, earning distinction and being decorated by General Charles de Gaulle, and served in WWII, before returning to his home country of England. His life is somewhat shrouded in mystery, as he preferred, but he became aware of his cultural English heritage and came to know of the Aesir in the 1950s when he met another of our Heroes, John Gibbs-Bailey “Hoskuld.” Together, they would proceed to research and re-establish what they dubbed “Odinism” and go on to found an organization dedicated to the worship of the Holy Aesir as “The Odinic Rite.” Gibbs-Bailey, being at least a decade older than Yeowell, had been an Odinist since the 1930s, and, by the time the two met, had been involved in a number of proto-Odinist groups. Yeowell felt the call of the Gods and eventually felt that Asatru was the natural religion for those of Northern and Indo-European descent and sought to reclaim the religion and birthright of his Ancestors.

In 1973, believing they had codified a solid structural framework on which to build, they went forward practicing and disseminating our native religion until 1980, at which time the name of the formal societal organization was cemented simply to “The Odinic Rite.” Together with Hoskuld, Stubba laid the foundation of the Nine Noble Virtues — Courage, Truth, Honour, Fidelity, Discipline, Hospitality, Self-Reliance, Industriousness, and Perseverance, which we still use today with the addition of the tenth Noble Virtue, VICTORY. They together established connections with fellow devoted believers, notably ‘Folkmother’ Else Christensen, another one of our Heroes, who they corresponded via letters, newsletters, and publications, such as The Odinist, steadfastly spreading the religion of Asatru. This is now what we call “Folkbuilding.”

Our Folkbuilders are continuing this tradition constantly, bringing more and more of our Folk Home every single day, just as Stubba, Hoskuld, and the Folkmother did, every month contributing an article to our own newsletter, The Runestone. Stubba would eventually lead the Odinic Rite as the “Director of the Court of Gothar,” which is equivalent to being the Alsherjargothi. John Yeowell lived a full and long life, and his dedication to the Aesir never wavered. He was Courageous in leaving Catholicism. He spoke the Truth in his letters. He gained Honor for his service in the war, and he exhibited Fidelity in his devotion to the Odinic Rite. He exhibited Discipline in living Nobly and embodied Hospitality in caring for his Folk. He was Self-Reliant, typing many newsletters laboriously by hand on a typewriter, consistently being Industrious, and he Persevered until the end of his life. We Hail these Heroes for their foundational and right Noble actions in the reclamation of our birthright and inheritance of the worship the Aesir.

It is important that we Honor and remember not only the Heroes of the distant past, but those in more recent days whose efforts have contributed to the renewal of our Faith.

Hail Stubba!

Holiday

Hexennacht | April 30th (Observed April 20th)

When the ground was thawed and the colder weather was beginning to give way, it became necessary to move the cattle from the winter fields to the summer ones. Hexennacht, traditionally, was a festival celebrating this very thing. The main focus of the holiday was the bonfire. The men would all gather and build the large need-fire. They would then walk the cattle through the smoke to bless them before rehoming them for the warm months. Often the men would call on Freyr during Hexennacht, asking for fertility and abundance.

While the men were off blessing the cattle, the women gathered together for their own festivities. They had their own bonfires, and it was during this time that the women often burned herbs and practiced their local magic or Seiðr. As the men called on Freyr, the woman would often call on Freyja.

After the separate celebrations, men and women would come together and continue the festivities.

We in the AFA celebrate this day as Hexennacht instead of the more common “Walpurgisnacht.” Walpurgisnacht is named such because it is the night before the Christian feast day honoring Saint Walpurga, who was credited with healing and repelling witches.

Men and women celebrating separately and then coming together are one of the main features of Hexennacht, as well as the bonfire. A good way to celebrate the holiday might include the men building the bonfire while the women practice communal Seiðr. When they are finished, the men and woman can join together around the bonfire. The women can throw herbs into the fire, and, asking for the blessings of Freyr and Freyja, the men, women, and children can each take turns walking through the smoke.

Hail Freyr! Hail Freyja!

Upcoming National Event

You're invited to Midsummer, Óðinshof's signature event of the year! Please join your Folk from across all the districts as we celebrate and honor our Gods and Goddesses at the very First Hof of the Asatru Folk Assembly. This weekend will be a summer “spiritual retreat” for all our Folk coming from near and far. It will be filled with inspirational rituals, scrumptious and hearty meals, healing music, warm sunshine, laughter, motivating conversations, and fun activities for all ages!

- Camping onsite at Odinhof is free and includes the use of outdoor hot showers.
 - Additional lodging options in the greater Brownsville area may also be available.
- Guests (non-members) must be approved prior to the event.
 - Please contact any of the Folkbuilders in advance to assist with this process.
- Keep a lookout as additional information will be provided soon.

Tickets on sale soon, so stay tuned! See you there!

Recap: Ostara at Þórshof 2024

Ostara at Þórshof 2024

In March, we hosted our annual Ostara at Þórshof. This year was a record-breaking year for us at Ostara. 113 in attendance, a wildly successful auction...but that only tells a part of the story. Ostara doesn't begin in March for Þórshof Leadership. The march toward Ostara begins at the end of Winter Nights. This year was no different.

Our Folkbuilders and Gothar have been working the phones, sending emails, and spamming MeWe groups ever since November. And a huge thank you goes out to them!

The event began with Welcoming the Gods on Friday afternoon. The Vè was the most packed I had ever seen on the opening ritual. We had at least 70 people present for this important rite. It was awesome to see.

Friday evening, we enjoyed a really delightful meal prepared by Gythia Catie Erickson followed by a thunderous Blót to Þórr performed by our High Priest, the living avatar of Þórr, Alsherjargothi Matt Flavel. As we often say, you don't just experience Blót performed by Alsherjargothi, you feel it. That wrapped up Friday's festivities.

Saturday began with an awesome breakfast prepared by Folkbuilder Mike Joyner, while we prepared for Food Pantry. Weather kept the food pantry crowd small, but we saw many of our regulars who are always grateful for our generosity and hospitality. We held a ladies' and men's group while taking care of our neighbors. Ladies group was led by Folkbuilder Heather Young, and men's group was led by Folkbuilder Robert Shotwell.

Heather made us a nice lunch of homemade chicken noodle soup with sandwiches.

Ostara Blót was next, performed by Gythia Erickson along with Witan Fassett and Folkbuilders Heather Young and Katie Joyner. The ladies worked in a sun cross formation as they blessed us with gifts of Ostara, and it was beautiful. I personally was filled with pride seeing my wife along with some of my best friends perform this sacred rite.

After Blót, we joined Alsherjargothi in Oathing Folkbuilder Tyler Sagert to full Folkbuilder status. Tyler is a star for Þórshof North, and it was awesome seeing him take this step in his journey. Afterwards, Alsherjargothi awarded Folkbuilder Heather Young with Folkbuilder of the Year. A very emotional moment for she and I personally. Huge congratulations to Heather and Tyler both. We are so much better with them on our team.

We then saw the wedding of Austin and Adaline, daughter of our dear friend Folkbuilder Jon Rock. The ceremony was presided over by Witan Svan Herul, and, as is usual, the rite was beautiful. Congratulations to the happy couple.

We also saw a baby naming for the Sagert's youngest daughter, which is by far my favorite ritual that we do in Asatru.

We then enjoyed a lasagna prepared by Folkbuilder Young, which is a personal favorite, as it's my grandmother's recipe. Then it was time for the auction. Led by our Lawspeaker, Allen Turnage, we raised an astonishing $6000 for Þórshof! More than 10 names are being added to our donor plaque at Þórshof due to the generosity and selfless nature of our Folk! Many thanks go to Stian Penner, Robert Shotwell and Gilbert for their donated auction items which raised a tremendous amount for Þórshof. Can't thank you all enough.

Saturday ended with what turned out to be the most powerful Sumbel I've ever been a part of. Hardly a dry eye was in the room when an esteemed member from Missouri sang a song for Ostara in a style that reminded me of opera. It was absolutely beautiful.

Sadly, we had to say goodbye on Sunday. Wayfarer Blot was led by Witan Brandy Fassett and Gothi Rob Stamm. Blót was given to Óðinn and Frigg.

We ended the day with a vow renewal for Folkbuilder Tyler and his wife Emily Bethea, who are celebrating their 10th wedding anniversary. Both are personal friends of mine, and it was my honor to preside over the ceremony. Congratulations to the Betheas.

If you weren't there, you should have been. Next Ostara may be even better, so plan on coming to see us then.

Hail Ostara!

Folkbuilder Spotlight

Folkbuilder Nick Rice

You may not know Nick Rice personally however, as a member of the AFA you've seen his work. Nick is the guy that will go out of his way to help anywhere or anyone he can without hesitation. As a Folkbuilder, Nick is one of our foremost front line guys bringing our Folk home and bringing our Folk together, which is a lot of work on its own. Being as successful as he is as a Folkbuilder is just scratching the surface in regard to all of the ways he works for our Church and our members.

Nick Rice is one of the Asatru Folk Assembly's most dedicated Folkbuilders. For many years before Nick and very few others got involved, I was responsible for all the AFA technical administration, technical support, website publishing, and newsletter publication. When Nick volunteered for the tech support team and the Runestone newsletter team, he took on many responsibilities and this helped me serve our Folk better as a Gothi because I had the time available to dedicate to more priestly duties.

Hail Nick Rice!

--Witan Cliff Erickson

Folkbuilder Nick Rice is very dedicated to his Gods, his church and to his Folk. He is where I turn when I need something, and I do so often that we joke that Nick Rice is the keeper of all of Witan Fasset's things. I ask and the item, or file, or information appears as if by magic! Folkbuilder Rice is hardworking and devoted and a part of the victory we have achieved. He is also one of my greatest supporters and friends.

Thank you, Nick!

--Witan Brandy Fasset

I have had the distinct pleasure of working with Nick since he relocated to Þórshof South last year. He is always eager to help, often overeager to help. But that comes from his desire to contribute, either to big projects or small ones. What makes Nick easy to work with is he is reliable, and he wants to help. Nick has been the driving force behind the scenes on Victory Never Sleeps since its inception. And to my knowledge he has never missed an episode as its producer.

To sum up Nick's qualities in a word it would be reliability. He can always be counted on, and he executes quickly. He's integral to the success of Þórshof South and a major contributor to the Asatru Folk Assembly as a whole. Thank you, Nick, for all you do.

Hail Folkbuilder Rice!

--Witan Daniel Young

The definition of the word invaluable is valuable beyond measure; something so precious that one cannot assign a price to it. This is Folkbuilder Nick Rice. Whether it is helping parents in the Asatru Academy navigate Quick Schools or other members of leadership find their way through the tech side of their positions, Nick is there with quick action and knowledge. The number of times that I personally have had to have conversations with Nick that start with the words, "So I did a thing...", only to have Nick respond with patience and understanding saying, "No worries, let's fix it. Easy Peasy." are innumerable. He is a true asset to the functioning of the AFA.

--Folkbuilder Sara Ault

There isn't much that Folkbuilder Rice isn't involved with in our Church. The work ethic of this guy is of the highest quality and to top it off, he is one of the nicest guys anyone could encounter. If you know Nick personally, count yourself lucky because to know Nick is to know what selfless service looks like and to know a guy that cares as deeply as anyone can. If you don't know him personally, make an effort to get to know him. We that do know him are all better off than we would be had we not. Thank you for all that you do for all of us.

Hail Folkbuilder Nick Rice!

Help for the Stone Family

Anyone that knows the Stone Family knows Ellie Stone as a smart, pretty, and outgoing 9-year-old and older sister to three younger siblings. Over the past five years, Brandon and Angelina Stone have raised Ellie as her primary caregivers, with little to no involvement from her biological mother.

Recently, the biological mother has decided she wants custody over Ellie. Brandon was served with custody papers. In order to keep Ellie with her family, we need to pull together to help them retain a good lawyer.

Ellie has been thriving. She is an Honor Roll student and has been attending the same school since Kindergarten. She enjoys being in her learning atmosphere with her longtime friends.

We do not want Ellie taken away from her loving and supportive family, stable household, and church community. Her biological mother and the mother's partner do not share our beliefs. Over the years, there has been very little involvement and no financial support from the biological mother to assist with Ellie's care. The Stone Family fears that if Ellie were taken from her home, she would become neglected.

The Stone Family is asking for our assistance to raise $6,000 to help with lawyer fees. Having a good family court lawyer in California is very expensive. Please help support this loving Odinhof family keep Ellie at home where she belongs.

Be a Doer

We need you to volunteer for the AFA!

Yes, you. We have work to do and need folk who are artists, editors, writers, accountants, lawyers, publicists, reputation managers, professionals of all manner, technical support, web developers, system admins, tradesmen, craftswomen, and more. See the list of amazing projects we have below. We will find a way for you to help our Folk.

Please email volunteer@runestone.org to help us make a difference in our world.

Baby Blanket Project

The Women of the AFA are proud to be continuing this fine and noble work we call the Baby Blanket Project! We're committed to ensuring all new babies born within the AFA are gifted a handmade — knit, crocheted, or woven — baby blanket! It's just our little way of celebrating each new addition to our folk!

This project has been going strong for nearly a year now, and has been a rousing success! The Ladies of the AFA have knitted, crocheted, and sewn beautiful baby blankets for over 20 of our littlest folk, with more on the way. They've been delivered everywhere from Alaska to Florida, California to Sweden!

If you are a member of the AFA who is expecting a baby, please let your Folkbuilder know so we can get a blanket to you. If you would like to contribute, either financially or by volunteering as a baby blanket crafter, let your Folkbuilder know about that as well, so he can get you in touch with the right people. It's so rewarding to see your handicraft being loved by our little heathens!

Would you like a blanket for your newborn, or to donate and help with yarn costs (yarn is expensive!)? Please email babyblanket@runestone.org today!

Folk Services

For some, it may be a natural disaster. For others an unexpected change in health, and for some just an unforeseen chain of events. Whatever the case may be sometimes we find ourselves in a sticky situation, and although we try and to work and do our best to pull ourselves out, sometimes we may need the help of our Folk community to give us a hand up...

That's when our folks Services Program comes in. We give one-time monetary grants to those members in need. These folks are so grateful and we know that once they get back on track they will contribute to this fund. For those that are able, we are in need of funds so we can be prepared for when these situations arise in our community. If you're able please place a donation today. Even a small donation adds up in the grand scheme of things and even $5 or $10 can help if enough people pitch in. If even a fraction of the folks who like the page did that each month, imagine the possibilities!

AFA Folk Services is intended to provide modest, one-time monetary grants to AFA members in dire need of basic services. It is also to be a source for referrals and information to help members get help beyond what the AFA can directly provide. For more information, please email folkservices@runestone.org.

Your contributions are earnestly solicited and of course, are tax-deductible! Please donate to Folk Services or one of our other AFA Fundraisers at <http://www.runestone.org/donate/>.

Thanks in advance!

Photo Donations

We have a real need for hi-res photographs of our members' gathering, being active in their kindreds, and showing what it means to live Asatru!

If you are willing to donate some hi-res photos for use in promotions such as the AFA Calendar, the AFA website, our publications, and more please email them to the AFA at photos@runestone.org. The larger the resolution the better, so please email them from the device where the photo was taken.

Eir's Blessings

Everybody needs a little extra help sometimes. Women, being the frithy creatures that we are, are uniquely suited to the task of manipulating energy for the purpose of healing. Magic, you could say.

Do you have a health concern and need a little extra energy? Are you battling with a mental illness like depression or PTSD? Is your baby having a hard time with teething? If you've answered yes at all, reach out to us. Once a month women of the AFA will get together to perform healing rituals all across the globe. If you would like to be included, please send a message to let us know!

At the same time, Women of the AFA! If you are interested in helping to create a frithful, healing magic, let us know! It's easy, but it makes a huge difference to those in our community who need our help!

Last Will and Testament

Recently, several members of our AFA family have passed beyond the veil. One was an old man in ill health, two were young men in the prime of life... all died with no legal will on record. Sadly, in two of these cases, our dead AFA members did not have their wishes respected regarding their funerals nor the final resting places of their remains.

We never know when tragedy will strike. We have a responsibility to our loved ones, we have a responsibility to our own legacies, to plan for our passing, and to make our wishes known. Planning for and contemplating our death is uncomfortable. Hopefully, we all have plenty of time for that down the road, but we can't count on that. Maybe we worry about expenses or hiring a lawyer. We all have excuses to put things off until later, unfortunately, sometimes the clock runs out before "later" happens.

We have found an amazing resource for our U.S. members to make legally binding wills in minutes online for free. This site also has resources to make Advanced Medical Directives and Powers of Attorney. It takes only minutes at <https://www.doyourownwill.com/>.

Please make your will today.

The AFA would like to collect signed original copies of wills for all our members and store them. We want to ensure that when members of our AFA family die, their wishes are honored. Please send these to:

Introducing the Newest AFA Kindreds

Breiðablik Folk Kindred

It is my honor to announce Breiðablik Folk Kindred of Iowa as the newest official Kindred of the Asatru Folk Assembly. Headed up by a crack team of Folkbuilders in Chris McDowell and Cody and Ali Clausen, we are sure to expect some awesome things out of these Breiðablik Folk!

Without these Kindreds and dedicated members, it would not be possible to maintain and operate our Hofs and districts. I want to say thank you to all the members of the AFA that help out and contribute to this amazing church.

Face to face is how you build solid bonds with other folk, not behind a keyboard at home. These bonds grow into communities of families and relationships are built and Kindreds are born of these local congregations.

Gaining Kindred recognition is not an easy thing. It takes dedication and loyalty, and willingness to stand with the AFA at all costs. All new Kindreds go through a six-month probationary period before joining our family as an official Kindred.

If you are interested in forming an AFA Kindred in your area or would like more information. Please contact the Kindred program email at kindred@runestone.org.

Hail Breiðablik Folk!

Hail the Kindreds of the AFA!!

Hail the Asatru Folk Assembly!!!

AFA Prison Ministry

The importance of this AFA Prison Ministry is so much more than just for those who are actually incarcerated, it benefits not only them as followers of Asatru but their families and loved ones on the outside as they will see the noticeable change in their demeanor and demand that our faith commands for them to lead a noble life. We all are future ancestors and will help them be examples of our faith and not be a burden or a product of recidivism.

We are compiling letters from prisoners that are Educational, Empowering, and Encouraging along with special spiritual writings from our Gothar to create a quarterly newsletter to be distributed to inmates, institutions, and jails. Our mission is not about providing free books or literature to bored prisoners who simply want free stuff. We intend on making real-world change for the better of our folk.

""No packed rooms in the prisons; in each institution I have only a few people; occasionally about a dozen, but 5-6 is more common. I certainly do not want the Fellowship to be a club for cons, or ex-cons; the advantage is that when in prison the inmates have time to discuss and digest what they read, a point that often is lost to people on the outside in the hubbub of daily concerns" - Else Christensen

By the example of our Folkmother, Else Christensen, we will also be going into prisons as we are able to. Some of our Gothar and other leadership, will be going into the prisons to hold study groups, lead blot, and encourage continued growth in the folk inside.

If you have a loved one who is incarcerated or know of someone who is Folkish and will benefit from this ministry, please contact us at prisonministry@runestone.org.

Or if you'd like to donate to this ministry, there's a donation earmark set up on our site here. The donations will be used to get small ritual items and books into the prisons and the hands of our Folk inside.

Cooking for our Folk

Cooking from the Heart. One of the first chefs I worked for told me that there are two main rules to cooking.

1. ALWAYS cook from the heart!
2. You must know the why of the rule before you can think about breaking it.

To this day, I still believe that number one is the most important; but two is the most valuable lesson. So, for example: why would you add flour to the mix when you are making Fried Potato balls? It doesn't add anything to the dish overall and in fact, it takes away flavor and disrupts texture. The reason is that what flour takes away: is moisture. It adds to the binder and liquid consumption.

So, what does this mean for the folk? Plan and simple, don't take shortcuts. Whenever I pick up the knife and began cooking for the folk, I think of it as channeling the ancestors. Cooking reminds me of that age-old musing "I don't measure seasoning; I wait for the tap on the shoulder from the ancestors to tell me that's enough."

When you cook from the heart, people can tell. Don't cook out of spite or obligation. Cook for the folk because you want to! Find new recipes. Test them. Make them better. And when your heart tells you it is right...time to serve. If you have never made cookies from scratch...make them. Why not? Use the best ingredients you can afford (don't take out a second mortgage for this) but be proud to feed the folk.

When the recipe is right and you feed the folk, please send the recipe to cookbook@runestone.org with details of when and where it was served (Hof/moot).

Ancestral Food and Culture

Italian Wedding Soup

For the meat balls:

- 1lb meatloaf mix if available (Beef, pork, veal blend)
- 1lb ground Italian Sausage

- 1 cup bread crumbs
- 2 eggs and a dash of milk
- 1 tsb fresh garlic, 1tsp onion powder, a dash of paprika
- Salt and pepper to taste
- ¼ cup parmesan cheese

Blend all ingredients well, form small meatballs, sauté meatballs in 2 tsp EVOO, 1 tsp balsamic vinegar and a dash of marsala or sherry wine until browned.

For the soup:

- 8 cups chicken stock or broth...store bought or homemade
- 1 cup sliced carrots, 1 cup diced celery
- ½ cup diced red or sweet onion
- 2 cups fresh spinach, 2 cups chopped escarole
- 4 large Roma or San Marzano tomatoes, diced
- 3 tsp minced garlic, 2 tsp onion powder, 2tsp Italian seasoning
- ½ tsp paprika
- ½ cup white or sherry wine
- 2 tsp balsamic vinegar
- Salt and pepper to taste
- ½ cup pastina

Combine broth and or stock with carrots, celery and onion and spices, bring to a boil.

Cook on medium heat until carrot, celery, onion are tender.

Add wine and balsamic vinegar, stir well.

Add meat balls one by one until desired amount is placed in soup.

Add spinach, escarole and tomatoes.

Cook on low/ medium heat for about 1.5 hours until meatballs are tender.

Add pastina and cook an additional 5 minutes until pasta is al dente.

Serve with warm bread, Mangia!

Baby Tracker

To show the growth of our folk we present to you an ongoing baby tracker. We will be keeping track of how many children have been and are born within the AFA from 2022 and forward. The ongoing tracking is proof that we are building something sustainable for the future of our folk, which is a place for these children to grow up within and a place where they can feel proud of who they are!

Being our most virtuous selves is not always the easiest task. As a community, we are home to many that have or are currently, struggling with addiction. Many traditional 12 step meeting, though so very respected, do not fall in line with what we as a people believe. Specifically, any step pertaining to the divine will or requesting the removal of any shortcomings. So, we run what we are calling the Virtue Recovery Meeting. Since we are an international organization, the best way for us to do this is via Zoom (<http://tinyurl.com/virtuerecoverymeeting>). We hold our meetings every Thursday at 7pm Central and every Saturday at 9am Central. Join us!! Feel free to reach out to Folkbuilder Ashley McStocker with any and all questions!

- NORTHERN FOLK - April 11th & 25th Especially for Alaska, BC & Alberta, US/Canada border areas.
- NORTHWEST UNITY CALL - Anyone is welcome to this Pacific Northwest Meeting, every Sunday night at 6:00 PT; Tyler Heinlein does a deep dive into philosophy, history and personal excellence.
- OCEANIA MOOT - April 28th Australia & New Zealand (once a month, Sunday morning, Australia time).

March Sister's Fitness Winner

The winner of the AFA's Sisters' Fitness Challenge for the month of March is Folkbuilder Sara Ault, Congratulations, Sara!

Sara hit her goals last month with a consistency rate of 96% -- a record best month for our current challenge!

Since joining our group last July, Sara has lost 60 pounds by being consistent, resilient, and has absolutely shown the virtues of Perseverance and Victory! In addition to all that, she has been a constant pillar of support, inspiration, and motivation for the other ladies in our group. Congratulations again Sara, you deserve this win!

All ladies of the AFA are welcomed and encouraged to join in the Sisters' Fitness

Group. All you have to do is get on MeWe and contact Folkbuilder Ali Clausen. You do not have to take part in the monthly challenge to be part of the group and ALL fitness levels are welcome.

Njörðshof

Food Pantry at Njörðshof

We fed 65 families during the food pantry at Ostara on March 16th. Not one single person was turned away. They received bags full of fresh bread, creamer, much needed baby food, and even fresh roses! We brought over some extra dry goods from Costco (thank you Costco for being so generous). By the end of the first 40 minutes, all of the fresh produce was gone. Most of the dry goods were gone. Not a single family went hungry, but our supply is running very dangerously low! I know our folk will come together to help the surrounding community survive the last lean days before summer.

Thank you to all who contributed in the gathering and distribution of the food. Our community counts on us for the help. Each month, the number of people is rising.

Viking Festival

We attended the Viking festival in Arkansas. Lots of fun things to see there. We saw Valhalla games. There were a lot of booths of local art. One of the booths had a variety of birds. The people of the booth with the birds had a couple owls and did a talk about the owls. Very interesting talk. My kids got bored of walking around the Viking festival, so we went to lunch afterwards at Olive Garden. Then we all hung out at my house the rest of the evening.

Ostara

We celebrated Ostara in Arkansas at a park. We grilled burgers and hot dogs and watched the kids play and then we ate lunch. Afterwards we hid eggs for the children. They had a blast looking for them and eating some candy after finding them all.

Then all of us did a craft with eggs. You first put a hole in both ends of the eggs. Make sure the hole is bigger on one end so you can blow the yolk out of the egg. Then you put a paper in it with a name of God on it and some seeds then seal the eggs. Wait for that to dry and then you can decorate the eggs. Later you can give the eggs as an offering to the Gods on an Asatru holiday. After we decorated the eggs, we cleaned up. Then we did a Folk Kom Hem chant and the two guys Galdered Raidho. Then we gave an offering to Freya. After that, we got ready to leave and we drove on top of the dam near the park we were at. It was a pretty sight.

Panacea Oyster Fest March Moot

On the last Saturday of March, the folk gathered at the Panacea Beer and Oyster Festival. We walked along the rows of craft and boutique sellers. You could buy anything from a new dress to a custom tumbler, and even a handcrafted wooden paddle board. Bands were rocking out on stage. There were vendor after vendor of oysters raised in Florida's waters.

You only had to buy a ticket to enter the beer garden. There were booths from major vendors alongside those of local craft houses and even home brewers. If you got there early enough, you could even sample the homebrewed beer and mead that Mike Joyner made.

Many of the members of Deep Well Kindred were able to welcome a new AFA member on his first Moot. I was even able to witness him eating his first ever oyster! There was no way you can go to an oyster fest and not get the oysters. We played in the sand, listened to the band, and grew closer as a Folk. Such a great day. Could have only been made better if I had remembered to put on sunscreen.

Hexennacht

Hexennacht is the first of the witches' nights of the year. It is the celebration of the ground being thawed out and the cattle returning to the summer fields with a bonfire being the main focus. According to a press release from the US Air Force Ramstein Air Base on 4/28/2011:

Legend says that during Hexennacht, evil ghosts represented by cold weather, snow and darkness meet with witches and demons at Blocksberg hill in the Harz mountains. Here they get into mischief before they take off on broomsticks, pitchforks, and billy goats at midnight.

The origin of witches' night goes back to pagan times, when people believed that evil ghosts tried to prevent the "Queen of Spring" from entering the country. Witches and demons were masters of people and things, so people did a lot to protect themselves.

They hid billy goats and broomsticks so witches would not be able to ride on them through the night and do evil things. It was an unwritten law that children must not get beaten with a broomstick, because it could be a witch's tool.

Also, socks were put cross-shaped on children's beds, pentagrams were put over house entrances, or sacred salt was scattered over the threshold. Residents used several herbs known to ban witches to smoke out houses and stables. Herbs included rue, St. John's wort and juniper.

Men made a lot of noise with whips and gun shots and lit fires to scare away demons. Cattle was driven through the fire to secure its fertility for the following year, and young couples jumped over the fire to make sure their love would last forever.

While the press release was written from a Christian mindset it was still interesting how in-depth they went. Men and women celebrated separately with their own bonfires and rituals. The men would bless the cattle and pray to Frey while the women burned herbs and practiced their magic or Seiðr. The women would call on Freyja. The culmination of the event would be the two groups coming together at one large bon fire.

New Beginnings

Ostara at Njörðshof was a wonderful and lively event! The air at any Ostara gathering always seems to buzz with the potential that new beginnings bring, and this was accompanied by the sounds of happy children. Each one of these children is like those rays of sunlight peeking up over the horizon at daybreak. They have the promise of a new day, of life, and of hope. Almost every Ostara picture from across the AFA has at least a few of these little sunbeams in it. What a future!

Exploring New Places

Being a good bit south of Atlanta, I don't find myself going downtown or north of the city all that much. For March, I decided to host a moot at a large nature trail in a nice area around Marietta, and it was well worth the drive. The trail went through creek beds, around a pond, and the spring growth made it all very beautiful. It's important for our folk to get out there and get to know where they live, our folk around them, and get active. Thank you to the Camerons for making it out to see me so soon after arriving home from Folkbuilder Tyler Bethea's Ostara gathering!

Texas

Texas Fun

March was an eventful month here in Texas as I hosted my very first moot with a group from the Njörðshof district. My wife and kids also joined us, making it a memorable gathering for my family. With everyone's busy schedules, it is always a challenge to find time for get-together and I am honored to have had such wonderful companionship.

Between work and school, I have been swamped and so I am thankful for my wife who made us a homemade corned beef and cabbage dish. I learned from that, that when the corned beef is in the brine the PH gets near a worrying level but and I almost thought we'd have to order takeout at the last minute. Fortunately, the dish turned out perfectly safe and delicious. Following dinner, we all had a delightful dessert, the kids' favorite part of course, and engaged in some fascinating conversations. It was a wonderful evening filled with great company and delightful food.

I wish I was able to meet more often. It is incredibly refreshing to talk to likeminded good and intelligent men. I left that moot with many new ideas to think over and new books to read. I thank the Gods for my AFA family. I hope we can keep this going into the future and that more members come out when they can.

I am going to schedule a monthly meetup monthly, third Monday of the month from 5 to 8.
