Words from the Alsherjargothi

"We are our deeds."

These simple words mean everything. Thoughts and theories, beliefs and ideas are great but if those things don't manifest into ACTIONS, they are worthless. Asatru is real when lived!

That is what we do in the AFA, we LIVE Asatru....and we live it together.

Seeing all the amazing things we have going on makes me so proud to be a part of this.

Our first year of the Asatru Academy Home School is coming to a close soon as an amazing success. We have 4 hofs hosting worship services every month as well as food pantries, feeding our neighbors in need. And, as you will see in this issue, we have progress at Sigrheim, the first AFA intentional community!

What a time to be alive! What a time to be in the Asatru Folk Assembly!

Words from the Witan

May Day

FREYRBLÓT

“Hail the Holy Æsir, Gods and Goddesses of our Folk! We ask you to join us today as we honor your kin!

Hail the Æsir!

Hail to the Honored Ancestors, Mothers and Fathers as far back as time remembers! We ask you to join your sons and daughters gathered here!

Hail the Ancestors!

Hail the Friendly Vaetter, spirits of this land and place! We ask you to look upon us in worship, see our deeds!

Hail the Vaetter!

Hail Freyr!

We ask you to join us here,

Witness our devotion,

Hear our praise,

Receive our gifts!

Folk, prepare your gifts for Freyr. From your heart to your hand, and from your hand to the horn, give the best and brightest of yourselves to him.

Ask your hornbearer to collect the gifts of the Folk “Freyr! The horn is heavy with the gifts of your Folk.

If you find them worthy, take them from us now.
Hail Freyr!”

Hold the horn high and await the acceptance of Freyr.
Pour the gifts into the bowl.
Refill the horn.

“Freyr,
We have given you our gifts.
We have offered you our love,
We have offered you our praise,
Our strength, our energy,
Pieces of the best of ourselves.
We ask, should you to bless the gathered Folk.
For the fertility of our fields,
And for the fertility of our women.
May we be blessed with prosperity and good health.
May our animals, our crops, and our children grow healthy and strong.
May the storms we face as Folk be mild. May we weather them with our heads held high,
With courage and with dignity.
May the summer rains nourish our lands and may your gifts nourish our souls.
Hail Freyr!”

Receive the gifts of Freyr. Walk the horn around the circle of gathered folk and offer them the gifts of Freyja.

Pour remaining mead from the horn in the bowl.

“This blot has ended.
We have given our gifts and received gifts in return.
Take with you, and into your homes, the blessings of Freyr.
Go forward with passion, with strength, and achieve the victory that awaits you!
Hail the Gods!

Hail the Folk!!
Hail the AFA!!!”

THE MAYPOLE DANCE

May Day celebrations are not complete without a May Pole! The May Pole itself is a fertility symbol, with the pole representing a strong masculine energy. The feminine is represented by the beautiful flora decorated crown and the ribbons that wrapped around the pole during the maypole dance.

Following Freyrblot, ask the women to attach the ribbons to the top of the pole and then the menfolk to carry the Maypole “plant” it in a sturdy place already arranged. Divide the group into two groups, those who will dance clockwise and those who will dance counterclockwise. Distribute them along the ribbons evenly. As the group dances, they should go “over” or “under” the person dancing in the opposite direction. The Maypole dance is best done with a good Polka! Once reaching the ends of the ribbons, secure the ends to the pole.

Baldrshof tradition is that those women seeking fertility, snip a piece of the ribbon ends and take them home with them.

Words from our Gothar

"Warrior Faith" in the Modern Age

Asatru is often called a “warrior faith”, and there is some truth to this. Our male ancestors often fought with sword, shield, axe, and spear to protect the things that mattered to them, and that still matter to us. They were almost all required to have some sort of martial bearing, and to be able to stare conflict in the eye without taking a single step backward.

We, those warriors' descendants, live in a time where comfort is king for many people, in the deepest and scariest sense of that phrase. Martial prowess is no longer expected from us, or seen as necessary. There are not currently any physical battles to fight; no need to smash through a shield wall, no need to plant some archers in that tree line over there, etc... However, as humans, we have a physical need to exercise that aggression. And as Aryan humans, we have a need to exercise that aggression in a HEALTHY way.

The best options for this are weightlifting, and combat sports. We will never feel the rush of smashing a war axe through someone's shield, but you CAN feel the raw power of lifting iron off of your chest, or from blocking another man's left hook.

This is a call: if you want to call yourself a warrior, get in the gym. Put on the boxing gloves, or the ace bandages around your joints, and get to work. Face that fight. Make yourself solid in a world of mush.

If you need tips on a decent but simple workout routine, get in touch with me at teast@runestone.org!

The Soul Complex, a summary

It's an age-old question. It's taken up many pages in many books, it's been pondered by philosophers, social commentators, and religious leaders for centuries. "What is the soul?" Many cultures across this planet have differing viewpoints on this topic. Recently we had a Gothar meeting on the subject. By the time you read this, Alsherjagothi Flavel and Witan Herul will have had a discussion on Victory Never Sleeps about the Soul and its many parts.

Webster's Dictionary defines it as such,

: the immaterial essence, animating principle, or actuating cause of an individual life
 : the spiritual principle embodied in human beings, all rational and spiritual beings, or the universe
 : a person's total self
 : an active or essential part
 : a moving spirit
 : the moral and emotional nature of human beings
 : the quality that arouses emotion and sentiment.
 : spiritual or moral force
 : FERVOR

That's the definition, but what do we, as Asatruar define as the soul?

Simply, it's what animates you, makes you unique, it's what makes you...you. It's what makes you human, it's what separates us from animals.

We, in the Asatru Folk Assembly believe that the soul, is broken down into parts. Here in this edition of The Runestone, we will explore the different parts of the Soul Complex, and how each part of the Soul makes us who we are. This will not be exhaustive, but a summary, pulling from Asatru, A Native Spirituality, by Founder Stephen McNallen, and Runelore, by Edred Thorsson. Over the coming months, we will break down each component of the soul, pulling from different sources. If we were to try to compile all we know here, this will turn into a book. Rather than do that, we'll spread it out over the coming months.

Now that we have defined what the soul is, let's break down the soul, as it is seen in Asatru, in a summarized list.

1. Lík, The physical body.
2. Ek, the ego.
3. Hugr, the logical mind.
4. Minní, memory.
5. Önd, Vital Breath.
6. Hamr, The Projected Self.
7. Sál, The Shade Self, that which is hidden.
8. Hamingja, The Luck or Personal Spiritual Might.
9. Fylgja, or the Fetch, The Primal Essence
10. Óðr, or Wode, the Ecstatic State, the combination of Hamr and Sál.

In the coming months, we will do a deeper dive into each component, beginning with the Lik. We will explore exercises for each component, and how to use each for your spiritual journey.

Each component makes up the whole, and we will also explore how each part interplays with some or all of the others.

Hail the Gods.

Hail the Folk.

Hail the Asatru Folk Assembly.

Vision & Action

As we move forward in our growth and our relationships, we need direction and momentum to seize the day. With all the conveniences & distractions in our modern world, it is of the utmost importance to have a vision. Vision should be apex of your will & your goal for an ideal future. Having begun developing discipline & good habits, self-honesty should be becoming a daily occurrence. As such use it to check the vision you've painted for yourself. Is it realistic, is it a productive & prosperous, does it elevate you & your folk? If so, have you worked it backwards so you can see your way forward? If all lines up and points towards a good life, start taking actions each day to make it manifest. Having a good life worth living will give a pious man a greater strength, then one who is reactionary or indulgent.

The Quest for Freyshof

“Njördr in Nóatún begot afterward two children: the son was called Freyr, and the daughter Freyja; they were fair of face and mighty. Freyr is the most renowned of the Æsir; he rules over the rain and the shining of the sun, and therewithal the fruit of the earth; and it is good to call on him for fruitful seasons and peace. He governs also the prosperity of men.”

– Gylfaginning

Freyshof Fund – Asatru Folk Assembly \(runestone.org\)

This sacred quest has had a great start so far! The generosity has been amazing, as always!

This is the list of things that need to happen before we can make Freyshof a reality:

1. We need to pay off Njörðshof.
  - The first of 2 loans have been paid off!
  - We now owe $110,857.86 on our remaining loan.
2. We need to raise our monthly donation average by 6.25%.
  - This is membership dues/hoftollar plus other donations.
3. We need to locate a suitable property.
4. We need to find lenders and build a war chest.

This is not a "quick" process so stay patient and resolute. As we progress, I will keep you all updated on our progress!

Hail Freyr!

Sigrheim: Home of Victory

An Earth Day Moot

At Sigrheim, some Tennessee Folk gathered in April to celebrate Earth Day. They camped out the day before the moot to spend as much time with the land and the Folk that came. The weather was fine, and while they did enjoy a minor rainstorm, the scents and sounds of the verdant land were beautiful to behold.

The land has promise, but it will take a lot of work from us all! Anything worth having takes hard work. The old axiom "Put in the blood, sweat, and elbow grease." The future is promising, but we will have to work hard to achieve this goal and continue to pursue it.

Since then, our first pioneer living on the property has been the first to break ground and make preparations for the time to come. We've got a couple more brave adventurers too coming later this month or first of next to call Sigheim home!

And of course, we hope that you can join us in July for Sigrblót at Sigheim, the first of many, many bigger events at our Home of Victory!

We Have a New Motto!

Student Heidi Harlan, learning about growing and farming!
Keep up the good work Heidi, we are all proud of your hard work this year!

Greetings everyone! Last month I put out a call for submissions for a new motto for the AFA academy. We got a ton of really great submissions! It was a very difficult decision to choose between all the great ideas.

We ultimately decided to go with:

Through knowledge, victory!
Með vitandi, vinna Sigr

Submitted by Allison Clausen.

We chose this because it fully encompasses the AFA culture of victory, and how our students gaining knowledge will lead to that victory.

Congratulations to Allison, we will be in touch to get your details and choice of AFA tee shirt!

Thank you to everyone who made a submission!

Day of Remembrance

Else Christensen

Originally born in Denmark, Else Christensen (nee Ochsner) was one of the leading figures in the modern Asastu movement. As a young woman, she left her hometown of Esbjerg in favor of Copenhagen. It was during her time in Copenhagen that Else awoke to the ideas of National Socialism in the midst of right-wing and left-wing radical struggles. She met and married Aage Alex Christensen, and together they were members of the Danish Workers Party.

Both she and her husband were imprisoned after the German invasion of Denmark in 1940 for their involvement with elements of the National Workers Party. After their release from prison Else and her husband emigrated to Canada, via England.

Even from Canada, Else continued to nurture her desire to find a place for her own people. It was during this time, while she was reaching out to far-right activists across North America that she first discovered Odinism in a pamphlet titled Call of Our Ancient Nordic Religion, by Alexander Rud Mills. This was the beginning of Else's dedication to the revival of the worship of the Norse Gods. Her understanding of our relationship with the Gods was heavily influenced by the idea that the Gods were encoded in the collective unconscious of the Aryan race.

In 1969 Else Christensen founded the Odinist Fellowship. Until her death in 2005, Else worked tirelessly for her folk, spreading the word of our faith and our Gods to all who would listen. She founded a prison outreach program that proved to be instrumental to many men. She wrote and published many publications. Her efforts saw her recognized as the Folk- Mother to Asatruar everywhere.

So, what can we learn from this story?

We don't always know where our stories end. We can't always see the ramifications of our thoughts when put into action. Else was just one single woman. She was a woman who believed in unpopular ideas in a time when those ideas were definitively unpopular. Despite being imprisoned for those beliefs she did not give up.

Our current times are, in many ways, similar to the ones that Else dealt with. They are turbulent and wrought with anger on all sides. We stand at the precipice of a new world, but we have no way of knowing which way the tides will turn. Else didn't turn and run. She stood and faced the future. In doing so she became one of the most important women in the Asatru movement to date.

When things are hard, when public opinion would have you conform, just remember. Your story hasn't reached its end yet, and only you can control the direction the story takes.

Stand strong.

Stand with Else.

Holiday

May Day

On the heels of Hexennacht, when the cattle were blessed in the smoke of the fire before being sent to their summer fields we celebrate May Day! Halfway between the spring and summer solstice, May Day is often considered to be the first day of summer. Warmer days are becoming normal. The spring rains that helped to nourish the wakening fields have begun to taper off. The world around us is verdant again.

On May Day, sometimes called Sumermál, big celebrations were held both to celebrate the end of the harder days of winter and to bless themselves and their crops for a fertile and productive year. Men and women leapt over fires together or alone, wishing for fertility in the coming year. The maypole was raised and around it, people danced and wove their ribbons. Women decorated their windows and doors with flowers and wove them into their hair.

Mayday is the coming together of men and women to celebrate life. We use this time to celebrate all the good things that we have, all of the things that we have worked hard for. We have survived the harsh months when stagnation is so easy a thing to fall into. When the celebration is done, the real hard work begins. The plan that was set into motion at Charming of the Plow will now begin the active stage. Those seeds that you planted, or that project that you planned at Ostara, will now need real tending to. Mayday marks the beginning. It marks the start of growth.

Where one has the will all things can happen.

Freyr's Harvest Feast in Montana | September 22nd-24th

Freyr's Harvest Feast is the time to honor the Gods after a productive year's Harvest. On September 22nd through the 24th, we gather together for a weekend filled with activities that honor the three Vanir deities Njord, Freyr, and Freya.

Get your tickets HERE

During the course of the weekend, the folk gathers together for three blots using mead donated by Heinlein's Hollow Meadery.

In addition to blot, we see the display of Freyr's Proposal on stage (stage under construction), the viking games tournament with a prize to be revealed at the feast as well as access to the Drengir Dinner where all previous years' champions are invited out the day before the event.

In addition to brawn, the brain is tested in our Hnefatafl competition. While this competition is less fierce the bragging rights are still pretty good. Guests can also test their luck at a game of Orlog.

While there are plenty of contests, we still have plenty of time for several workshops, and speeches by guest speakers. Craftsmen will also bring their wares out to sell and authors to sign their books. An AFA benefiting auction will provide ample opportunities to walk away with a bag full of spoils.

The whole event is hosted on a private 20-acre ranch in a very low-population area. It's on the river and away from prying eyes. So not only do you get to enjoy a full event you can take in the beauty of rural Montana, enjoy the river and see what an AFA homestead looks like. An optional tour and sunbath will be held in the early morning for those wanting to see inside a proper meadery.

Lodging is straightforward as well. Bring an RV or tent and camp under the beautiful stars. Trust us when we say there's more of them visible than wherever you're coming from and on lucky nights the Northern Lights can be seen.

For those who want less rustic accommodations, there are numerous hotels and motels within a reasonable driving distance. In a few more years we will have cabins available too!

So that's lodging but everyone's got to eat right? Well, we got you covered as well. The meals are all plentiful and delicious, none more so than the feast itself. Last year we filled the dining hall with food and refreshments and this year we aim to provide just as much good fare. Five to ten gallons of mead will be provided for the feast according to turnout and the couples dance that follows is always great fun.

Remember to dress your best at the feast and dance but it won't all be formal. For the first blot, we go into the water to honor Njord. Ladies especially, make sure that you wear clothes that you're not only comfortable getting wet but are also modest when wet.

While the prospect of getting into the water in September might be daunting to some, the month has a wonderful climate. It has a high of 70 and a low of 50 with a nice midday breeze.

The truth is unless you come out you won't know what you're missing so don't make that mistake and come out to Freyr's Harvest Feast.

Since 2012, this long-running AFA festival has been dedicated to our ancestral mothers, the Disir. We look forward to seeing members and friends!

Your registration includes all workshops, lectures, meals, lodging, and of course our holy rituals. Only AFA members and vouched-for guests will be admitted to this event. If you are not an AFA Member you should confirm with the member who is vouching for you that they will do so when asked about your registration.

We need you to volunteer for the AFA!

Yes, you. We have work to do and need folk who are artists, editors, writers, accountants, lawyers, publicists, reputation managers, professionals of all manner, technical support, web developers, system admins, tradesmen, craftsmen, and more. See the list of amazing projects we have below. We will find a way for you to help our Folk.

Please email volunteer@runestone.org to help us make a difference in our world.

Baby Blanket Project

The Women of the AFA are proud to be continuing this fine and noble work we call the Baby Blanket Project! We're committed to ensuring all new babies born within the AFA are gifted a handmade — knit, crocheted, or woven — baby blanket! It's just our little way of celebrating each new addition to our folk!

This project has been going strong for nearly a year now, and has been a rousing success! The Ladies of the AFA have knitted, crocheted, and sewn beautiful baby blankets for over 20 of our littlest folk, with more on the way. They've been delivered everywhere from Alaska to Florida, California to Sweden!

If you are a member of the AFA who is expecting a baby, please let your Folkbuilder know so we can get a blanket to you. If you would like to contribute, either financially or by volunteering as a baby blanket crafter, let your Folkbuilder know about that as well, so he can get you in touch with the right people. It's so rewarding to see your handicraft being loved by our little heathens!

Would you like a blanket for your newborn, or to donate and help with yarn costs (yarn is expensive!)? Please email babyblanket@runestone.org today!

Folk Services

For some, it may be a natural disaster. For others an unexpected change in health, and for some just an unforeseen chain of events. Whatever the case may be sometimes we find ourselves in a sticky situation, and although we try and to work and do our best to pull ourselves out, sometimes we may need the help of our Folk community to give us a hand up...

That's when our folks Services Program comes in. We give one-time monetary grants to those members in need. These folks are so grateful and we know that once they get back on track they will contribute to this fund. For those that are able, we are in need of funds so we can be prepared for when these situations arise in our community. If you're able please place a donation today. Even a small donation adds up in the grand scheme of things and even $5 or $10 can help if enough people pitch in. If even a fraction of the folks who like the page did that each month, imagine the possibilities!

AFA Folk Services is intended to provide modest, one-time monetary grants to AFA members in dire need of basic services. It is also to be a source for referrals and information to help members get help beyond what the AFA can directly provide. For more information, please email folkservices@runestone.org.

Your contributions are earnestly solicited and of course, are tax-deductible! Please donate to Folk Services or one of our other AFA Fundraisers at <http://www.runestone.org/donate/>.

Thanks in advance!

Photo Donations

We have a real need for hi-res photographs of our members' gathering, being active in their kindreds, and showing what it means to live Asatru!

If you are willing to donate some hi-res photos for use in promotions such as the AFA Calendar, the AFA website, our publications, and more please email them to the AFA at photos@runestone.org. The larger the resolution the better, so please email them from the device where the photo was taken.

Eir's Blessings

Everybody needs a little extra help sometimes. Women, being the frithy creatures that we are, are uniquely suited to the task of manipulating energy for the purpose of healing. Magic, you could say.

Do you have a health concern and need a little extra energy? Are you battling with a mental illness like depression or PTSD? Is your baby having a hard time with teething? If you've answered yes at all, reach out to us. Once a month women of the AFA will get together to perform healing rituals all across the globe. If you would like to be included, please send a message to let us know!

At the same time, Women of the AFA! If you are interested in helping to create a frithful, healing magic, let us know! It's easy, but it makes a huge difference to those in our community who need our help!

You can reach us at EirsBlessings@runestone.org

Last Will and Testament

Recently, several members of our AFA family have passed beyond the veil. One was an old man in ill health, two were young men in the prime of life... all died with no legal will on record. Sadly, in two of these cases, our dead AFA members did not have their wishes respected regarding their funerals nor the final resting places of their remains.

We never know when tragedy will strike. We have a responsibility to our loved ones, we have a responsibility to our own legacies, to plan for our passing, and to make our wishes known. Planning for and contemplating our death is uncomfortable. Hopefully, we all have plenty of time for that down the road, but we can't count on that. Maybe we worry about expenses or hiring a lawyer. We all have excuses to put things off until later, unfortunately, sometimes the clock runs out before "later" happens.

We have found an amazing resource for our U.S. members to make legally binding wills in minutes online for free. This site also has resources to make Advanced Medical Directives and Powers of Attorney. It takes only minutes at <https://www.doyourownwill.com/>.

Please make your will today.

The AFA would like to collect signed original copies of wills for all our members and store them. We want to ensure that when members of our AFA family die, their wishes are honored. Please send these to:

Cooking for our Folk

Calling all Chefs

We are looking for recipes for a cookbook. We ask that the recipes were served to the folk at a Hof or moot. Please include where and when it was served.

cookbook@runestone.org

Cooking from the Heart. One of the first chefs I worked for told me that there are two main rules to cooking.

1. ALWAYS cook from the heart!
2. You must know the why of the rule before you can think about breaking it.

To this day, I still believe that number one is the most important; but two is the most valuable lesson. So, for example: why would you add flour to the mix when you are making Fried Potato balls? It doesn't add anything to the dish overall and in fact, it takes away flavor and disrupts texture. The reason is that what flour takes away: is moisture. It adds to the binder and liquid consumption.

So, what does this mean for the folk? Plan and simple, don't take shortcuts. Whenever I pick up the knife and began cooking for the folk, I think of it as channeling the ancestors. Cooking reminds me of that age-old musing "I don't measure seasoning; I wait for the tap on the shoulder from the ancestors to tell me that's enough."

When you cook from the heart, people can tell. Don't cook out of spite or obligation. Cook for the folk because you want to! Find new recipes. Test them. Make them better. And when your heart tells you it is right...time to serve. If you have never made cookies from scratch...make them. Why not? Use the best ingredients you can afford (don't take out a second mortgage for this) but be proud to feed the folk.

When the recipe is right and you feed the folk, please send the recipe to cookbook@runestone.org with details of when and where it was served (Hof/moot).

Ancestral Food and Culture

Good Mornings Start with Fresh Bagels and Coffee

In America we may associate bagels with New York City, but they have a long and storied Aryan past. They are believed to have originally been invented in German monasteries during the Middle Ages, much like their cousins the pretzel. They were brought from Germany into Poland by peasant farm workers. They have become a staple food in the country going by the name obwarzanek and are found in most Central European countries. In America today, bagels are found everywhere in grocery stores, cafes, and drive thrus, but for me, nothing beats homemade. They're simple and once you get a knack for it, they're very easy to make.

For the dough:

1 and 1/2 C warm water

4 tsp yeast

4 C flour

1 Tbsp honey

2 tsp salt

Eggwash:

1 egg, beaten

2 Tbsp water

For Boiling:

2 Quarts water

1/4 Cup honey

Any bagel seasoning you might like on top (everything, onion/garlic salt, coarse sea salt, sesame seeds)

Add yeast, warm water and honey to a mixing bowl or stand mixer, allow yeast time to activate and foam (5-7 minutes)

Mix in flour and salt, forming stiff, dry dough

Knead for 5-7 minutes or until smooth and stiff

Allow the dough to rest in a clean, covered dish for an hour or until doubled in size

Preheat oven to 425°F

Line two baking sheets with parchment paper

Put the water and honey for boiling on the stove at medium heat allowing it to warm as you shape the bagels

Divide dough into 8 equal sized parts and form each into a ball

To form the bagel shape, slightly flatten each ball and poke your finger through the center of it. Gently stretch from both sides until the hole in the center reaches around 2 inches.

Allow each bagel a few minutes to rest before boiling

When the water reaches boiling, place two bagels at a time in and allow them to boil 2-3 minutes. They should float when they're done.

Set each bagel on the parchment as it's removed from the water to give them time to cool off.

Once your bagels have had time to cool, gently dip the top side only in the egg wash then dust with seasoning.

Bake 20-25 minutes, until golden brown.

It's important to give your bagels a bit to rest out of the oven to allow them to become chewy and delicious. I usually let them sit for 15-20 minutes before cutting into one.

Serve with butter, cream cheese, jam, as a breakfast sandwich or with soup. They're delicious however you choose to enjoy.

Grandma's Gurkensalat Recipe

Yummy Gurkensalat made from my grandmother's recipe....kinda. She could never write down measurements because she didn't measure. So it's as close as I can estimate to the taste...

Ingredients

- 2 English Cucumbers
- ½ C sour cream
- 1 Tbsp white vinegar

- 1 tsp sugar
- 1 Tbsp fresh dill chopped
- ½ tsp salt
- black pepper to taste

Instructions

1. Peel the cucumbers if desired and thinly slice them with a mandolin slicer. The thinner the better! Put them in a large salad bowl.
2. In a medium bowl, whisk together sour cream, vinegar, sugar, and dill. Salt and pepper to taste.
3. Pour dressing over cucumber slices and toss until combined.
4. Cover and refrigerate at least 4 hours or overnight.
5. Serve with a slotted spoon.

Do you have advice for those who have finally come home and wish you could have it handy to give to them?

Are you enrolled in Asatru Academy or partake in Lore Study or the Virtue Recovery Group?

AFA Prison Ministry

Greetings kinsfolk,

The importance of this AFA Prison Ministry is so much more than just for those who are actually incarcerated, it benefits not only them as followers of Asatru but their families and loved ones on the outside as they will see the noticeable change in their demeanor and demand that our faith commands for them to lead a noble life. We all are future ancestors and will help them be examples of our faith and not be a burden or a product of recidivism

We are compiling letters from prisoners that are Educational, Empowering, and Encouraging along with special spiritual writings from our Gothar to create a quarterly newsletter to be distributed to inmates, institutions, and jails. Our mission is not about providing free books or literature to bored prisoners who simply want free stuff. We intend on making real-world change for the better of our folk.

If you have a loved one who is incarcerated or know of someone who is Folkish and will benefit from this ministry, please contact me at jault@runestone.org. Or if you'd like to donate to this ministry, there's a donation earmark set up on our site.

Njörðshof Work Day

The first workday of the month we had seven members show up to lend a hand. We got on of the bathrooms primed and ready to be painted, some general organizing, and a bunch of yard work. Main yard work was repairing of playground fence and clearing overgrowth. In preparation for Hexennacht and May Day.

The second workday we had two members show up. The day was focused on moving the denoted oversized freezer into the food pantry storage room. A door frame and a wall stud had to be removed. It is now in place and ready for action.

More yard work to come next weekend.

Hexennacht at Njörðshof

April saw the first celebration of Hexennacht at Njörðshof! After our monthly food drive, the Folk gathered for a delicious lunch.

We honored Freyja after the meal with a Blót, after which the women poured herbs, flowers, and blessings into the sacred fire.

Each of us took a turn "sweeping" the blessed smoke over the Folk.

The day was concluded with a wonderful sumbel, further weaving us together.

Florida

Panama City, FL Potluck

Greetings Folk,

Panama City Potluck Moot was a great night of fellowship, ceremony, and food. We shared roast, ribs, veggies, and pastry for our potluck dinner. We had many AFA members, including local Panama City's Ravensblood kindred members, in attendance.

Mike Joyner held an excellent Sigrblót and Sumbel for us. During the ceremony, victory candles were gifted and blessed for each household's altar.

Katie Joyner introduced Witan Brandy Callahan's Swedish version of the Folk Kōm Hem chant to the ladies. The ladies had the honor of using her chant during Sigrblót with the intent of bringing our folk home.

During Sumbel, we honored the gods and had the privilege of learning about each other's ancestors.

Bodi Mayo, held lore trivia and Mike Ashmore gifted a beautiful statue to the winner and a beautiful coin to each attendee. With the help of the folk, it was a great evening.

Tallahassee Picnic in the Park

On April 3rd, several local families gathered at Cascade's Park in Tallahassee Florida for fun, Frith, and playing in puddles. The moot was almost canceled due to some terrible thunderstorms that came through earlier that day. Much to everyone's delight, the storms passed without much hubbub and we were able to gather in the park for a lovely evening. The children played in the water puddles, climbed all over the structures, and even slid down the big slide! The grown-ups gathered around the picnic table and had wonderful conversation.

YOU!

We have the following amenities at the Njörðshof Gym:

Natural Treadmill (walking)

Natural Yoga (picking up branches)

Natural Zumba (weedeating—If you don't have a weedeater we can provide one for you)

Natural Sauna (the Florida sun and a tree trunk fire)

Natural Juice Bar (tons of wild sweet blackberries)

We also offer group classes every Hof workday!

The Hof needs some work, and we could use everybody's help. We are trying to develop a list of everyone's talents. Although we may have a certain job, it doesn't mean that is the extent of our abilities. Even if you don't want to do the work that you have expertise in, you could at least be a resource for others to ask questions. Please send me a list of what you have some expertise in and also, send me a list of what improvements you think are a priority at the Hof. Your opinion is important to the success of the Hof.

The back area with the fire pit has a lot of potential. I and a few other members have been pecking away at it. We have been able to clear a small area for the May pole and we are steadily expanding the area. If you could bring a weedeater on the next workday, it would make things go a whole lot faster. Also, if you have any suggestions about the back area, it would be appreciated.

Witan Svan Herul probably looks at every mural at every Hof with a sense of pride that he has created something that honors the Gods and Goddesses, and will exist for the benefit of our Folk long after he has passed over the veil. Everything we do at the Hof honors the Goddesses and Gods and will exist for the benefit of our Folk long after we have passed over the veil.

Hosting our Folk

Hail to a good host!
A guest has come inside,
where should he sit?
He is impatient,

standing on the threshold,
ready to try his luck.

He needs water,
the one who has just arrived,
dry clothes, and a warm welcome
from a friendly host--
and if he can get it,
a chance to listen and be listened to.

— Hávamál 2&4

For the month of April, my family had the pleasure of hosting some of our Folk as they traveled through northern Georgia. We find few things as spiritually fulfilling.

These opportunities make me nostalgic for my late mother. As hospitality was the truest expression of the love she had. She would often pick up “strays” as we joked growing up. Leading her to proclaim in one way or another, that anyone one who needed a place to stay, meal to eat or ear to listen would have one.

Such things in my youth, I had taken for granted. As my time moves faster in Midgard, I understand why she was full of joy. What she gave was received, full circle.

Hail the Folk!

Hail the Gods!

Hail the AFA!

Georgia Hiking Moot

Hail All! On April 22nd, members from Georgia and Florida met up at Providence Canyon State Park in beautiful and quaint Lumpkin, Georgia.

Providence Canyon was established in 1971 to preserve the unique scenic beauty of Georgia's "Little Grand Canyon" Due to poor farming practices of the early settlers, the soft soil began washing away in the early 1800s when trees were cleared to plant crops. By 1850, three-to-five-foot ditches had been cut into the land. Today, some of them are as deep as 150 feet. The water gradually cut through the erosion-resistant upper layer (known as the Clayton Formation) , exposing the colorful sandy soil known as the Providence Sands and the lower, dark gray layer known as the Perote Member. Beneath the Providence formation is the Ripley Formation, which is the ancient sea floor from 59-80 million years ago, a very erosion-resistant clay-like soil that slows the erosion process to a hardly measurable rate, while the sides of the canyon continue to wash downstream.

Today, the park covers 1,108 acres with 16 canyons. Some 43 shades of soil can be seen, and the splendor of the colors, ranging from light orange, salmon, red, and scarlet to white, purple, and pink, is a sight worth seeing.

It is a truly unique place, which I've come to many times as a kid, and I wanted to share it with my AFA family.

Oklahoma

Participation

Attending Asatru events wasn't easy when I joined the AFA years ago. There weren't any members close to me and the adjacent states didn't have much going on either. Once I attended a decent sized event with members from in and out of state. I realized I wasn't as plugged into what all was happening as I thought I was. Some of this is because there wasn't a Folkbuilder in Oklahoma, but also several other improvements that have helped organize our Folk through better communication with the district websites, their calendars and the MeWe social media event groups.

Practicing Asatru alone has benefits in knowing our own limitations and retention of knowledge. Practicing with other Ásatrúar brings that knowledge to greater levels than can ever be achieved alone. Exchanging ritual techniques and ways to implement the gifting cycle can invoke deeper connections to our Ancestors and Gods. Participating with your kinfolk builds bonds that create lasting memories. Those memories carry over in knowledge and meaning that become the basis for the very epigenetic markers that called us home. Coming home strengthens the path for us and our descendants between our roots and our future. Let's participate together and leave a wake for others to find their way home.
